Honors College MONDAY MESSAGE

Honors College updates delivered straight to your inbox every Monday.

Full text of all announcements can be found at this week's page here.

A Message from Dean Doolen

The last weeks have been a stressful, confusing, and challenging time for all of us. We've had to revise our expectations for the coming term – and then revise them again as the situation changed. Activities and events we'd been looking forward to for months or even years have been postponed or canceled.

Although we know this period of uncertainty will eventually end, none of us knows how long our lives and plans will be disrupted.

Our feelings of anxiety, and even loss, are normal under the circumstances, but they do not have to define all aspects of our term. Much will be different, but our commitment in the Honors College to helping each member of our community thrive and succeed has not changed and will not waver. Our advisors are ready to meet with you remotely; our faculty and mentors are ready to support you in the classroom and in your thesis research; and our entire honors team is ready to help you continue moving toward your long- and short-term goals. The Honors College is ready to meet you, wherever you are and in whatever way you need.

As a small, flexible, and creative community, we can do things the wider university cannot. We will be

NEW! HC Wellness Wednesday: Hiking in the Age of Social Distancing

Join us as we partner with the Adventure Leadership Institute to learn about local and online resources for hiking during the age of social distancing. This includes how to plan your hike, what to bring, and how to interact with people on the trail. Visit this page to register in Hiking in the Age of Social Distancing on Wednesday, April 1 from 3:00 - 4:00 p.m.

NEW! Words With Friends: HC Tournament

Calling all who love to play scrabble! Challenge your fellow HC students in the Word with Friends HC Tournament.

The tournament is single-elimination, with games being played Friday (4/3), Saturday (4/4), and Sunday (4/5) from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. Participants will be seeded base on experience only. Prizes will be awarded to the top two finishers and announced in the Monday Message. Register by Thursday at 12:00 p.m. Good luck to all!

NEW! Remote Demo and Friends on Camera in Health Policy

Join us on Tuesday, April 7 at 12:00 p.m. in a virtual Demo and Friends discussion with former Hennes College student BrynRay Key on careers in health policy!

Dr. Kay graduated from OSU in 2000 with degrees in philosophy and microbiology. She earned her MS at Oregon Health and Science University and her Master of Health Science degree at Yale University, where she completed her fellowship. She served as special advisor to the U.S. Veterans Affairs Secretary and Deputy Under Secretary for Community Care. Currently, she is a practicing general surgeon, healthcare executive, and quality improvement researcher at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center and deputy chief medical officer for the South Central VA Health Care Network. She is a recipient of prestigious awards like the President George H.W. Bush's Distinguished Young Person of Light Award, Business Week's All-Star of 2010, and was named by Edison Healthcare as one of the top Minority Healthcare Executives in Health.

This discussion will be held on Zoom, please RSVP to Kevin Steiner at ksteiner@hawaii.edu to receive a link.

NEW! Spring Term Classes With Open Books!

Still looking for a great spring term class? There are spots in the following:

Colloquium: HC 407: Plagues for Poets. Th 4:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

This discussion will explore students to their release or practice in their daily lives – from art, science, literature, and today's discourse to automobiles. The material will be presented in such a way that it is accessible to students from all majors. There are no pre-requisites for the course.

Colloquium: HC 407: Imaging the American West. W 10:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Images of the American West are formative in American art, to some extent, world culture. The Western landscape has been portrayed as iconic a stage on which cultural connotations of individualism, gender, empire, ethnicity, and nature are dramatically enacted. In this course, we will explore images of the West and their implications for contemporary culture.

Colloquium: HC 407: Humans and the Ocean. MW 9:00 - 9:50 a.m.

This course introduces students to work in disciplines humans understand the marine environment. Literature, literary research, and assignments will explore approaches from disciplines including marine science, history, and other arts and humanities disciplines. Students will learn about history and contemporary ocean and coastal issues, such as sustainable fisheries, plastic pollution, and climate change.

Back Core (French Culture): WL 420B, French Society Through Its Cinema. 9:30 - 12:00 p.m.

An examination of French society through its film, cinema. Via the screening and study of films from the various periods of French history, students will delve into the heart of French society and discover the socio-historical, political, economic and cultural context.

Remote Support for The B.I. Blog

The HC and HC academic advisors will support students through all stages of the Thesis process during the spring 2020 term. Contact an HC academic advisor if you want to discuss the Thesis or need assistance. Completing Thesis Stages 1 or 2 during spring term is very much possible.

Stage 1: The dates and times for remote Stage 1 workshops will be announced in the Monday Message and available on the Stage 1 website here.

Stage 2: The Hennes College will provide a number of resources this spring to support the completion of Stage 2.

The dates, times, and presenting faculty information for remote Student & Faculty Matters in Spring term will be announced on the Monday Message and available on the Stage 2 website here. You will also find numerous resources on the HC Academic Advising Canvas Page, including the Hennes Thesis, which can be found here, the Resources for Completing Stage 2 on Your Own, which can be found here, and the Past Theses Directory, which can be found here, and other links to help you explore your options.

For those focused on progressing through Stage 3 & Stage 4 not assured that we are here to support you, and will do whatever we can to remove barriers in your way. Please feel free to contact us at any time here.
